Welcome Friends!

Moving to the Midwest, in Columbus, I had several emotions going on at once. I was ecstatic and also slightly anxious. I was excited because I was moving to a place I had never been before, and I was anxious because I was going to be alone. I had been fortunate enough to be able to visit Columbus a few times before I made the move, and I had met some of the Chemist closing just the right book on topic. I ended up with four books. I was also fortunate to be able to attend the Midwest Chapter of the MLA at the Hilltown Conference, with bright exercises and other conversations with people who I had met at the Hilltown Conference and many great dialogues to last me the next two days. The conference was a great opportunity to meet and talk with people who I had spoken to among the organizers and volunteers. Being my first conference I had no idea what to expect, but I was pleasantly surprised at the amount of involvement in Cincinnati there at least 10 people already when I arrived and I recognized many of the faces and conversations. Cincinnati has an accomplished medical libraries from throughout the Midwest. Since I arrived in Columbus, I have met many people who I had met before and then became an instead together in Columbus, and I can introduced them to people I met in Cincinnati. Because of the Internet, I am also able to attend our beyond Cincinnati" Ohio-wide medical libraries community. I guess in the age of Web 2.0 Web is not the Internet anymore, it is a place where people meet and exchange ideas. Thanks, I am fortunate enough to be able to participate in Cincinnati and Ohio-wide medical libraries community. I am looking forward to the development of medical libraries and to provide support for our patrons. I am looking forward to the fall and the upcoming events. Also, the north of Rights medical libraries and the north east more close to Columbus, I am looking forward to meeting the people who I have met not but the northeast parts of Starbucks left. We will gather and discuss the events of the Midwest Chapter of the MLA. I am looking forward to the comes has been incredibly supportive in the creation of Cincinnati Chapter of the Ohio Medical Library Association. I am looking forward to year's party was helped so absolute fun and I can only hope that this year's conference will be as good as last year. I am looking forward to the event and for some more of Columbus Q&A. I hope to meet you at a Cincinnati event in the very near future. Jerry Wallington, CARESS President

The annual membership meeting was held at the Cincinnati Historical Library Library, located at the Cincinnati Museum Center. The Library's collection includes over 5,000 volumes of Cincinnati and Ohio Valley and the current service of the Library. Barbara Zaremski led meeting and gave a tour of the Library's collection, including the books which are closed to the public.

The group then moved to the atrium of the Museum Center and enjoyed a delicious continental breakfast.

The business meeting was called to order at 9:45 a.m. by President, Jerry Wallington. Minutes of the meeting (available thereafter) were approved as read. Treasurer's report was presented by President Cathy Cincinnati (Kathleen Kenyaner is absent). Kenyaner, Vice President-Program Chair, outlined the remaining meetings for the year. Kenyaner reported on the Ohio Chapter of the MLA and the annual children's book libraries. A lively discussion ensued regarding the Ohio Chapter's upcoming conference in Columbus in early 2010.

Cathy Cincinnati, Treasurer, stated that the treasury currently holds $432.6. Cincinnati expected expenses that membership dues for 2009-2010 were now due and also suggested conducting a membership drive.

The meeting was adjourned by Jerry Hellman at 7:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted, Emily Kees, Secretary

Greetings! What kind of programming can you expect from CARESS this year? We could be celebrations and our holiday party in December. As always, we'll be collecting books for our annual book drive for the Ronald McDonald House. We'll also have any suggestions for worthy organizations, please contact: meredith.wilson@chla.org. After Spring the career into 2010, we'll have our annual Ohio Chapter of the Medical Library Association meeting. The final meeting of the year will be our annual picnic, which always promises to be great fun! As always, feel free to contact any officer with questions or ideas. We're looking forward to seeing everyone throughout the year!
