President's Page

It's September and time for the Cincinnati Area Health Sciences Museum Libraries to begin meeting again. In Medicine, we begin our new semester in August, but in Nursing and Allied Health it is September. Welcome back to Vera Prendergast, President Elect; Cara Tankersley, Treasurer; Jane Hardesty, Past President; and Edith Starbuck, Secretary. We have a full slate of officers this year and I look forward to working with them.

We also had a very lively and creative meeting of the Program Committee. Cara Tankersley, Program Chair; Vera Prendergast; Jane Hardesty; Carol Hudson; and Sue Hardesty were joined by Jim Scott, Director of Marketing for the Cincinnati Museum Center. We discussed a variety of our joint group programs. We will have an exciting tour of the Cincinnati Museum Center's new exhibit, "Titanic" in April. The Chronicle regularly is a long appetizer of meetings and workshops.

CAHSLA has never as a vital forum for networking, improving knowledge, and sharing ideas. Our meetings are informal, friendly, and always provide experienced members with the opportunity to mentor newer members. Our meetings are also a time to share information about professional concerns. We are very proud of two of our members, Jane Hardesty and Edith Starbuck, who have been instrumental in CAHSLA's revival for Midwest Chapter Meeting in Cleveland (October 1 - 3).

Earlier in this column I provided you with the names of our Executive Board for the upcoming year. I want to emphasize that the work of CAHSLA is entirely volunteer and beneficial to our members. Our work in CAHSLA is relevant and beneficial to us. What do you want to gain from CAHSLA? Do you want to share your talents? Do you want to see the benefits of networking and cross-development?

At the writing of this column, summer is still hanging on. The scenery of Cincinnati is still beautiful. Take a few moments to enjoy it. Take a long weekend, go to a Reds ballgame, go to the Cincinnati Zoo, go to Kentucky for a day of horse racing, go to the Cincinnati Art Museum, go to Kroger's Fall Festival of Flowers, go to the Cincinnati Wine Festival, go to the Cincinnati Art Museum, go to the Cincinnati Art Museum, go to the Cincinnati Art Museum
