President's Page

To the Members – of Interest! Time flies, the holiday season may often imply a whirlwind of activity that can be exhausting. Coupled with the lurch in the world, it is even more important to take a moment to reflect on what is good in life. For the CAHSLA Chronicle, it is a time to reflect on what is good in our field. It is a time to reflect on our members, our profession, our organization, our Chronicle and for our profession. With that end, I appreciate that CAHSLA programs continue to be well attended, that our Chronicle is read and appreciated, colleagues are friends, and its time for fun!

Looking back on the CAHSLA accomplishment year so far, I want to thank the Program Committee for a great fall program. The Program Committee, led by Kathy Lyons, Library, and Barbara Mills, Contributing Editor, arranged a great program on Reflections on the 2010 Midwest Chapter/MLA Conference. The membership meeting in September at the Union's photo shoot for the Chronicle was a great time to see and be photographed. Thanks to the Ann Arbor crew who, the December CAHSLA Holiday party will have photographs of the Chronicle staff posted on Facebook. The Chronicle's 20 year donation of books to Kosair is the year's recipient. The Outstanding Paraprofessional Award was presented to Kathy Hoffman, Library, for her dedication to the profession and her tireless work. The Chronicle's Production Team, led by Kathy Pratt-Gordon, Library, continues to produce a quality publication. The Chronicle's 2012 issues will be posted on the CAHSLA website. The Chronicle's Editorial Board, led by Jennifer Phillippe and Cara Vachowski, continue their work on the Chronicle. The Nominating committee, chaired by Kim Kaye, Library, has a slate of officers for the Executive Committee, which Twelve positions cannot be filled and will be presented at the January meeting. The Nominating committee is also looking for a new Chair for the CAHSLA Holiday Party to succeed Kathy Lyons.

Thanks to Kathy Lyons, Library, and Cara McCormick for organizing this fun event.
